

Capitalize

Use the “Capitalize” mark for:

- The first word in a sentence
- The first word in a quotation
- Names of persons, places, or things
- “I” when it is alone or in a contraction
- Days of the week, months of the year, holidays
- The important words in a title
- Abbreviations such as Dr., Mr., Mrs.

sue got a huge stocking on christmas morning.

tim said, “i love going to the grand canyon.”